"SURE SHOT" VICTIMS TESTIFY AT TRIAL THOUSANDS WILL WITNESS BRIDGE SPAN RAISING

BRADY FACES ACCUSERS IN FRAUD TRIAL

Local Widow Sinks Life
Savings in Operations of Sure Shot Brady

Poverty and wretchedness are star witnesses in the trial of M.
J. "Sure Shot" Brady in the United States district court in San Francisco. Witnesses there are by the score, a large percentage from Richmond, and other Contra Costa cities, who aver that their entire life savings were swept away by the glimmering bait of quick money that was dangled before their eyes.

One of the most pitiful cases
is that of Mrs. May R. Jackson, of Richmond. She told the jury that savings that represented a life time of close economy were invested in the project, and that when, after her husband's death,
she pleaded with Brady for the $20,000 they had given him, she failed to receive anything despite a written guarantee. She is now spending her declining years in the Masonic home at Decoto.

Mrs. Alice Lilly, also of Richmond, told the jury of losing $300 in the stock scheme.

Brady, the alleged organizer of the Sure Shot Oil company, maintained offices in Richmond for a year. Here it is claimed that the prospects of the company assured the company to have 432 acres in Contra Costa county, an acre on Signal Hill, and 80 acres in Tatt.

Investors claim that he assured them of a safe interest, and that money back guarantees were given in some instances, which later proved to be bogus.

It was declared by Postoffice Inspector S. H. Morse that Brady alone profited by the scheme and that the entire project was a fraud.

Delightful Time
Is Enjoyed In
Judge Odell's Court

Speeders received a hearty reception in the court of Police Judge C. A. Odell yesterday. Delicious refreshments were served but few appreciated them with the exception of speeders who pronounced the occasion a most enjoyable one. Judge Odell was speaker of the day and was heartily applauded. The presence of traffic officers added a unique note to the jolly gathering.

four speeders in court contributed

NEXT CONGRESS TO MAKE SLASH IN U. S. TAXES

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 18.—
President Coolidge today gave reasonable assurance that a tax slash will be made at the next session of Congress.

America's phenomenal prosperity will undoubtedly warrant such a tax reduction, visitors at the White House were told.

By request of the President, the House ways and means committee will make a summer survey of general business conditions and of the possible government receipts for the fiscal year which will begin on July 1. By November, the survey will have been completed and an administration tax-slash bill is expected to be ready for presentation when the new Congress begins its session.

As a result of these complete arrangements, Congress will be in shape to reduce the tax rates before the next new levies fall due,
the President expects. He hopes that the business and industrial interests of the nation will thus be enabled to adjust their affairs for another year's continuance of the bounding prosperity.

President Coolidge agrees with Secretary Mellon's estimate that the treasury surplus on June 30
will total at least a half billion dollars and may reach the vast sum of $600,000,000. Although the President would have preferred to have Congress grant a 10 or 15 percent income tax cut on the payments due last week and next June, he is agreeable to the plan of using the surplus to reduce the national debt.

It is good business for the government to reduce its permanent obligations in time of prosperity
when income tax receipts and revenue from all other sources, notably customs, are heavy. After failing to slash the taxes, Congress adopted resolutions recommending application of the surplus to the debt.

SHANGHAI FALL IMMINENT AS COOLIES STRIKE

General Strike is Called Until Cantonese Take
City of Shanghai

By ROBERT J. PREW
(By Universal Service)
LONDON, March 18.—While a general labor strike has been called in Shanghai, beginning tomorrow morning and lasting until the capture of Shanghai by the nationalists, reports from the Nanking front indicate that the fall of that city to the southern forces is imminent, due to the defections in the ranks of the northerners.

This situation
reported in able dispatches
tonight. According to a Central News dispatch from Shanghai, an organized revolt broke out in Nanking today. Seventeen hundred men left their quarters and marched towards the munitions stores, obviously with the intention of capturing them and then joining the Cantonese forces.

Loyalist troops were rushed into the breach. Rebels intercepted them and a battle in the streets followed. The attempt to take the munitions depot failed and the rebels were driven back with considerable loss.

The city of Nanking, however, is in a state of tension. A fresh outbreak is expected at any moment.

Charge Against Thevenin To Be Reduced

Confessing his guilt in looting
the Princeton Knitting Mills at Richmond twice during January,
S. J. Thevenin has been absolved from participation in the burglar-

that he aided Jackson in selling approximately $800 worth of sweaters stolen from the mills
in towns from San Francisco to Ukiah.

The two were arrested in Redding ten days ago, traced through an automobile.

Authorities intimated that the charges against Thevenin, now held on two charges of burglary,
will be reduced.

3 Slayers Make New Attempt To Escape Will County Jail

By FRED VAN DEVENDER
(By Universal Service)
JOLIET, Ill., March 18.—A new attempt of three slayers to break from the Will county jail was discovered here today.
The discovery was made on the heels of an announcement by State's Attorney Hjalmar Rehn that the break of three Mexicans last week was due to negligence of guards.
The three men who planned the break today were Charles Duschowski, Carl Shader and Walter Stalesky. They were awaiting execution for the murder of Deputy Warden
Peter M. Klein at the state prison.

The three Mexicans who broke from the jail last week were convicted of the same murder. Bernardo Roa, one of them is still at liberty. The other two, Robert Torres and Gregoria Rizzo are held at the Cook county jail in Chicago.

The discovery of the attempted escape today was made when Mr.
Rehn went to their cells to question them concerning the former break. Three hack saws and three pieces of steel, sharpened
to dagger points and three bullets were found.

The prisoners were stripped of their clothing and thrown into solitary confinement, pending a new probe.

The March grand jury has been recalled and will convene Monday.
At that time all evidence collected so far will be submitted. Intimations have been given that sensational disclosures will be made to the body.

Before today's discovery, the state attorney announced that he had found no connivance of guards to help in the escape of the Mexicans, but did say they had been negligent in their duties.

CLOUD OF WAR OVER SHADOWS EAST EUROPE

German Press Says Poles Plan Invasion of Lithuania

By O. D. TOLISCHUS
BERLIN, March 18.—Under the score heads "War Threatens East Europe," the German press is featuring sensational reports that the Poles are planning to invade Lithuania tomorrow, occupy Koyno
and present the country to Pilsudski as a birthday present.

The reports were started by semi-official Russian charges that Poland, instigated by England, has prepared an ultimatum to Lithuania and that England has approved armed Polish action.

Diplomatic sources here assert that the Poles are concentrating several cavalry regiments and armed trains and flying squadrons
on the Lithuanian border.

Poles Deny Report
A Reval dispatch at the same time reports the discovery of a plot by a Lithuanian regiment to mutiny and overthrow the government.

The Poles deny any hostile intentions, denounce the Russian reports as propaganda and point out that the Pilsudski cabinet is scheduled to attend the festivities
at Kattowitz on Sunday.

There have been several border clashes on the Vilna front lately
but an invasion is held unlikely at this time. The reports, nevertheless, are indicative of the nervousness caused by the British-Russian conflict and the continued rumblings of the Baltic volcano.

ROME, March 18.—No warlike

have placed Italy in the strongest possible position.

At the same time, a dispatch

piece of the government, declaring that the news published abroad that Italy as a result of the situation in the Balkans, is preparing for war, is unfounded and tions.

A banquet was served later in the evening.
The Scioto's band led by Prof. A.

selections. Local Scioto's are plan-

LOCAL WOMAN TAKES LIFE WITH POISON

An inquest is pending into the death of Mrs. Mary E. Bedbury, 45, who was found dead on the floor of the bathroom in her home, 146 South Sixteenth street, yesterday, with a bottle of carbolic acid in her hand.

Mrs. Bedbury left a note which authorities believe accounts for the apparent suicide. It read: "I

Mrs. Bedbury had lived in Richmond for a number of years
with her son and husband, Joseph Bedbury, Standard Oil employe.
Some years ago, Mrs. Bedbury

Trade Volume Is Picking Up

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 18.—
Trade volume for the second week of March, as reflected by check payments, was considerably greater than for the corresponding week last year, the department of commerce announced today.

Indication of continued good business was seen in the fact that business failures were fewer than in the preceding week and considerably below the same week
in 1926.

Production of bituminous coal
and output of crude petroleum both showed an increase for the first week of March over 1926.
Production of bituminous coke and lumber, however, was considerably less. Receipts of cattle and hogs were even smaller than a year ago.

SECOND SPAN WILL GO INTO PLACE TODAY

Weather Condition Better Than For Raising of
First Big Span

Traffic officers from other counties of northern California will be on hand today to help direct the thousands of cars which will journey from the bay cities to witness the raising of the second span of the gigantic Carquinez bridge and patrol the stretch between Crockett
and Hodeo, according to Captain George Belon of the Contra Costa traffic squad.

"Weather Promising"

The barrier which has for centuries divided the interests of central and northern California—treacherous Carquinez straits—will have been virtually swept aside before tonight, barring acts of providence, a sudden turn in the predicted "perfect" weather conditions, or faulty calculations
in the plans of engineers.

But none of these unexpected calamities is in prospect, and shortly after 10 o'clock this morning the actual work of raising the 750-ton second span in the Car-quinez span will be in progress.
Engineers on the project stated
last night that weather conditions for the huge task today are even more promising than they were for the raising of the first span recently.

Elaborate precautions have been taken to insure the successful completion of the $5,000,000 project.

Engineers state that by 3 o'clock this afternoon, the span will have been moved into place, 135 feet above the level of the water.
Hundreds of spectators, it is expected, will line the hillsides to witness the engineering feat.

PARTIES AND PROHIBITION

Prohibition and its enforcement are problems that go beyond most of the problems this country has ever had to face. To call the situation a mess is merely to say what it looks like now, and to ignore the fact that a mess is a mess and not a matter that can get very much messier.

Note the little argument with which the democratic party leaders organizing their forces for the 20th congress, dismissed prohibition in caucus the other night. Prohibition is not to be made a party issue; each senator is to be allowed to vote as he pleases on the wet and dry question.

This decision is excellent in one aspect and cowardly in another. Whether there shall be drinking openly or under cover is the business of each district, and the population becomes too homogeneous and there are no more prohibitions in the country than in the city. But the Democratic party brands itself as a political chicken-liver when it laid down the precedent of several years ago, when democratic leaders felt that on this highly controversial question individual senators should be guided by their own desires and by the dictates of their own constituencies. It would have been impossible, anyway, to reconcile the sharply divergent viewpoints represented in the democratic membership. For instance, Senator Bruce of Maryland, a wet leader, and Senator Sheppard of Texas, a dry, are far apart as the poles on the question as are several others.

In the interest of political expediency, therefore, the leaders felt that wise policy required that prohibition not be made a party issue by adopting either a wet or a dry program.

Senate democrats have been badly split over prohibition. This rift is certain to be widened by the convention which, in place, bitterness may eclipse Madison Square Garden.

The fashionable version in some quarters of the famous sentiment is attended to as to whether a country is always wrong, it may be right sometimes, but I shall claim it is always wrong anywhere.

THE MARRIAGE GAME

As Played to a Decision Every Day By Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nation

THE PERMANENT INVESTMENT
HER PLAY: Women have been kidded along ever since marriage became an economic institution, that marriage is, for them, a permanent investment. The money they put in, and the time they spend and the interminable planning and scheming they give to marriage are supposed to represent a permanent investment in which the interest is not only compounded fairly but the principle is safe-guarded. Whether a woman puts in dollar for dollar with her husband, makes no difference. She puts in hour for hour and year for year and when the time comes for a reckoning it is just that the division of the property be made equal. But how often is this true? Hardly ever.

CHAPTER VII THE HOME-COMING

Dawn broke over the Sierras with a far-fung gesture of dripping sunlight. It was a cold dawn, and the small boys huddled in their blankets at the margin of the lake. A rushing heady sound of wind and wave filled the air rustlingly; from the Boy Scout camp there came a low, steady, early shuffling of the horses aroused by the first few streaks of light.

CHAPTER VIII THE HOME-COMING

Fred Blake sat up in his blankets and looked out at a mild whinnying made him turn his head, and he smiled wanly as he saw Silver, picking his white feet daintily through the dew-drenched grass, approaching him from the lake. Silver lowered his head and gently nudged his master, his great dark eyes eager for a soft word. "It's all right, Silver old man; Fred's asleep," he said gravely. Fred's steady light of affection burned in his eyes for this animal who above all living things understood him best. Silver watched him intently, his crooked back satisfied to crop the sweet grass.

EMBROIDERY IS IMPORTANT

Nothing so distinguishes a dress this season as hand embroidery, therefore, the designers of the frock to the left use it most effectively on a background of flat silk crepe. To the long-waisted bodice a circular rounce is attached, the bodice being shirred at the center of the front. Medium size requires 3 1/4 yards 36-inch material.

The composite theme is expressed in the second frock, a soft, supple Jersey in gooseberry-green, trimmed with gold and tan embroidery. The skirt is pleated in front, and the blouse features embroidery at the lower edge and on the sleeves. Medium size requires 2 1/4 yards 54-inch Jersey and 1 1/4 yard 36-inch lining for bodice of skirt.

First Model: Pictorial Review Printed Pattern No. 3674. Sizes, 14 to 18 years and 34 to 42 bust, 45 cents. Embroidery No. 13145. Blue or yellow, 35 cents.

Second Model: Printed Pattern No. 3680. Sizes, 14 to 18 years and 34 to 44 bust, 45 cents. Embroidery No. 13143. Blue or yellow transfer, 35 cents.

O'BRIEN STARS IN '3 BAD MEN' AT RICHMOND

The opening of the Indian lands for settlement by the whites is the epochal story of Fox Film's production of "3 Bad Men," which is now playing at the Richmond theatre.

Not only is this an intensely interesting picture of one of the most romantic periods of American history, that followed soon after the Civil War, but it is also a gripping story of the struggle of two youthful lovers for land.
George O'Brien plays the part of the hard riding young pioneer, Dan O'Malley, and Olive Borden
as the winsome but courageous young orphan, "The 3 Bad Men," historically accurate portraits of the bad men of that period, are splendidly portrayed by J. Farrell Macdonald, Tom Santschi and Frank Campana. The supporting cast is one of the strongest assembled for a picture in some time, including as it does such well known film favorites as Lou Tellegen in the role of the villain, George Harris, Jay Hunt, who starred in "Lightnin'," Priscilla
Bonner, Otis Harlan, Walter
Perry, Grace Gordon, George Irving and Alec B. Francis star of
"Thank You."

Other film features on the same program include "Beauty A La Mod," a Roaring comedy; and
"The Missing Link," a cartoon
comedy.

many of them making trips to the new location. The auditorium of the school, when completed, will be one of the finest in the bay region.

Report On Haiti Denies Charges Of U. S. Misrule

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Haiti is a land of peace and prosperity instead of peonage and chaos, John H. Russell, American high commissioner there declared in his annual report to the State Department today.

His document is a flat denial of charges made by Senator W. H. King, democrat of Utah, that the little republic is misruled by the native President Louis Borno and that the people are kept under the iron heel of American marines.

On the contrary, Russell reports that the people are in better condition than they have ever been, the island produced an almost unprecedented coffee crop at a time when prices were extremely high, he added.

Receipts for the year were the highest in history, reaching a total of over $9,000,000. Customs revenues increased 122 percent. After applying $1,384,836 to the reduction of the National debt and $2,156,349 to public works there remained still a surplus of over $5,000,000.

The American commissioner commends the administration of President Borno and declares that his constructive policies have made marked progress in Haiti possible.

SHAW DEFENDS ARMS AND MAN FILM RIGHTS

By ROBERT J. PREW
(By Universal Service)
Special Cable Dispatch
LONDON, March 18.—George Bernard Shaw held the limelight in a novel way today while a defendant in the law courts in a suit against him by Jesse Arnold Levinson, of Los Angeles.

The point at issue is whether Levinson can produce the film version of the Viennese Musical comedy "The Chocolate Soldier" without infringing on Shaw's rights in his play "Arms and the Man."

Shaw contends the "Chocolate Soldier" is substantially based on "Arms and the Man" but Levinson says the Viennese comedy is a distinctive work.

The American is seeking an injunction restraining Shaw from stating to film producers, exhibitors and others that "The Chocolate Soldier" film would infringe on his copyright until a judgment is given in the action to determine the issue.

Judge Eve decided today that he couldn't grant an injunction as Levinson's claim stands, but evidence is being taken and the plaintiff's case will probably be amended when the suit continues Monday.

Shaw was in court today listening to the statement of Levinson's case and the evidence in its behalf but he is not expected to take the stand until Monday.

"The plaintiff's case is that realizing Shaw might object to the filming of 'Chocolate Soldier' with his consent or might claim a substantial sum of money, he called at the author's home, Adelaide Terrace, London, and saw Blanche Patch, his secretary, who told Levinson that Shaw had no objection to the filming of 'The Chocolate Soldier.' She afterwards wrote him:

"Mr. Shaw says that 'The Chocolate Soldier' and 'Arms and the Man' are two distinct plays, both written around the same people and the incident of a soldier breaking into a lady's bedroom are the same. If 'The Chocolate Soldier' is filmed care must be taken that nothing is quoted from 'Arms and the Man' nor must Mr. Shaw's name appear in connection with it as he would immediately prosecute if it was suggested he had anything to do with the writing of 'The Chocolate Soldier.'"

Levinson thereupon went to Vienna and saw the composer Strauss and the Librettists Bernauer and Jacobson. Later Shaw called him:

"Any film entitled 'The Chocolate Soldier' or based on the Libretto 'Der Taptre Soldat' will infringe my copyright and I will prosecute accordingly."

Levinson denied on the stand that the "The Chocolate Soldier" was a plagiarism or piracy of "Arms and the Man."

Auto Association Celebrates 20th Anniversary This Year

Plans for a new East Bay district headquarters building to accommodate its growing activities in that section were announced yesterday by the California State Automobile association. The new building will be constructed at Station and Grand avenues, Oakland, according to F. V. Dewey, Jr., field secretary of the association.

Plans for a new East Bay district headquarters building to accommodate its growing activities in that section were announced yesterday by the California State Automobile association. The new building will be constructed at Station and Grand avenues, Oakland, according to F. V. Dewey, Jr., field secretary of the association.

The site selected is on one of the principal arteries of Oakland and the location is easily accessible from all East Bay points. "The new building will be adequate to accommodate all of the association's present activities in the East Bay district and the staff of 40 employees through whom we now serve our growing membership in this section and association members touring in the East Bay district."

"From an architectural standpoint, the building will be an adornment to the Lake Merritt residential section and will conform to all setback requirements and other structural restrictions. Provision will be made for a future addition to the new building as the association's East Bay membership continues to increase."

"The association has far outgrown its present East Bay district headquarters on Broadway," Dewey stated, "and we have been looking forward for some time to larger quarters for our Oakland offices to serve a membership in Alameda and part of Contra Costa county, including Richmond, which has now reached a total of 15,000."

5 Legged Trees Become Fashion

(By Universal Service)
DAVIS, March 18.—"Five legged" trees have become the fashion among pear growers, according to M. J. Heppner of the University of California farm here.

The five legs result from an attempt to conquer the black and rot in their orchards. One of the causes of the rot being the use of Japanese rootstocks, young trees on French roots are planted in the old tree and then grafted in the trunk, or inarched. In the course of a year, the five-legged condition appears, since usually four of the little trees are inarched.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Sid Terris won a ten round decision over Billy Wallace of California tonight at the New Gardens. The decision was a big surprise as Wallace appeared to have all the better of the milling.

League Of Nations Holds Solution Of Unrest, Says France

(By Universal Service)
PARIS, March 18.—"If general disarmament is to be realized, the safety of the individual nations must be assumed. Only the League of Nations can disarm the nations and at the same time guarantee their safety."

This declaration was made today by Paul Boncour, when he was asked his opinion of the American memorandum repudiating many of the findings of the League disarmament sub-committee.

MEXICO HALTS ITS SEIZURE OF PROPERTIES

By WILLIAM F. FLYTHE
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Mexico has apparently halted the seizure or confiscation of American properties, the White House announced today.

This is the first official intimation that the tension between that country and the United States has slackened and that Mexico has given ground in the face of the strong American protests.

The brief statement was made that so far as the President is informed Mexico has not recently taken any property of Americans and that there is no disposition to do so at the present time. It was added that there may be some remote instances in which small parcels of land have been taken, but that if so they have not been brought to the attention of this government.

The declaration was regarded as of particular significance at this time. Don Manuel C. Tellez, Mexican ambassador to the United States, is expected to return to Washington early tomorrow after a personal visit to his home office to discuss the strained relations with the United States.

He is expected to seek a conference with Secretary of State Kellogg immediately upon his arrival to discuss with him the result of his mission to Mexico.

The hurried visit of Ambassador Tellez to Mexico, which was coincidental with the dispatch of an American note, was cloaked in the deepest mystery. It was generally believed, however, that the exchange of notes was designed to terminate the long correspondence on the subject of the land and oil laws with a definite declaration of policy from Mexico.

Until this afternoon there has been no official intimation that there had been a change in the situation since the first American protest was lodged with Mexico more than a year ago. Each government flatly refused to make any concession to the views of the other.

Men Trying Ensembles As Ladies Go To Tailor Mades

By EDWARD M. RUTTENBER
(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, March 18.—The women have jumped to plain tailor-made suits with mannish waistcoats and cravats but the men have plunged deeper into the ensemble labyrinth.

The latest thing in ensemble schemes embraces long trousers suit, knicker and top-coat, and even includes a cap. Some of the New York clothiers have issued cards showing men how to apply the ensemble scheme to their apparel. The idea as employed in a general way is to employ one basic color and to vary this color with minor over-shades.

In the current window displays about the city much is made of ensemble notion in men's apparel, with various decorators employing their individual conceptions of cloths that match and contrast. It is anticipated in men's wear circles that with the coming of a colorful spring a great deal will be made of ensembles.

Ensemble enthusiasts about New York have brought out the blue shirt with renewed vigor, expecting to produce thereby studies in blue that include suit, overcoat and shirt—possibly cravat. The ensemble notion is like a puzzle to many of the well dressed men and they are working out all manner of effects "on their own."

Top-coat purchasers this spring might do well to stick to grey mixtures, inasmuch as grey is described as the one neutral color that lends itself to ensemble development.

Practically any color harmonizes with grey and by using this color as a base it is comparatively easy to run the harmony scale.

JURIST FLAYS MANN ACT LAW

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—Federal Judge George M. Bourquin today openly declared himself on the Mann white slave act in much the same manner as he previously had done regarding the Harrison narcotic law.

He said both the laws attempt to regulate people's morals, a matter for the state to attend to and not the United States.

"Congress has exceeded its authority in this law," he said, "just because a person crosses a mythical line why should he be prosecuted by the federal government. I am not in favor of these doings, but I am objecting to the procedure in prosecution. The state should take care of its own morals. It is no concern of the federal government."

Judge Bourquin's declaration was made when he fined Harold Duval $100 when he pleaded guilty to transporting a girl between states for immoral purposes. The girl's name was not mentioned due to the fact that she has since married.

R. U. H. S. NINE IN FIRST WIN THIS SEASON

By "MERC" GLUM
The fighting Oilers of the local high school took the field at Berkeley high yesterday afternoon and won their first game of the season, 7-4, thereby revenging their defeat at the hands of Berkeley in their first game of the season. Pinto twirled beautiful ball for the entire contest and all the Berkeley runs were the result of indirect errors.

Gordon Scores
In the first inning, Pinto, first man up for Richmond, singled to right field. Gordon was safe on a fielder's choice. Williams was safe on Harkin's error and Gordon scored on Pinto's single to center.

In the second inning five hits accounted for two more scores. Again in the fifth canto six hits scored three more tallies. The last score was a result of Gordon's infield single. Gordon stole second and third and scored on Nelson's overthrow to third.

Berkeley crossed the plate two times in the sixth inning as a result of three passes and three hundred singles.
A fast double play, Williams to Gordon, to J. Baldwin, featured the game. Gordon's sensational stops at short brought the fans to their feet on many occasions.

Jack Pinto struck out 10 men and allowed only two earned runs. The new infield combination at second base worked smoothly and pitchers no longer will have to fear a ball hit to second base.

Contra Costa Pellet Chasers Plan Tourneys

With the passing of the winter and the beginning of the golfing year, members of the Contra Costa Golf club are looking forward with great pleasure to golf and the entertainment of their friends at the country club in Pacheco. Judging from the schedule to be given during the year, it is quite evident that the club is gaining steadily in popularity to its members in Contra Costa and Alameda counties.

Harry Mudd, chairman of the tournament committee, has planned an extensive program for 1927. Leading the events is the third annual championship tournament for the president's cup, which will be held from April 10 to May 15.

Ladder Tournament
In the meanwhile, the committee has arranged a ladder tournament for all its male members. Jim Knapton, No. 1 man on the list, has safely held the lead in the past two weeks by winning two matches in a row, the first match being a close one, from the 1926 champion, Rev. Carroll. The latter previously slaughtered George Alljan for No. 3 position in an easy match that ended at the 13th hole. One thing is certain in this tournament; that is, the high handicaps are to be cut to pieces by the best brand of golf present grass fourways and nine new greens. Dubs that were flubbing at shots with the confidence of seasoned tournament players are already trying to break 100—and are making 105 to 110 in the attempt.

On next Sunday, the annual interclub match with Vallejo Golf and Country club is to be played at Pacheco. A team of 20 men will be matched against the sharpshooters from the naval town. Following the golfing program, the local talent is to entertain the guests at the clubhouse.

Many Events
The rest of the schedule of the nine important events for the year will consist of the following tournaments:
March 27—Spring match, East vs. West.
April 3—Novices' day. A special tournament for novices.
May 1, 8 and 15—President's cup tournament for club championship.
June 5—Mixed foursome tournament.
June 19—Women's handicap tournament.
August 14—Flag tournament.
Sept. 25, Oct. 2 and 9—Directors' cup handicap tournament.
October 23—Autumn match, East vs. West.

BLOW PROVES TOO MUCH
PHILADELPHIA, March 18.—A terrific right to the chin proved too much for Charley "Kid" Hill, a negro heavyweight, of Wilmington, Del., in his bout with Jack Cross, of Salem, here and he succumbed a short time after. Hill's head struck the mat in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout, and he failed to regain consciousness.

OREGON AGGIES FEAR WEAKNESS IN FOOTBALL

(By Universal Service)
OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 18.—After watching his 1927 varsity football team battle for 60 minutes against last year's team, Coach Paul J. Schissler was not altogether too well pleased with the results which gave the alumni a 13 to 6 victory in a game which wound up spring practice for the Oregon Aggies.

Last year's team, composed of the entire starting lineup which faced most opponents on the gridiron last fall and brought O. A. C. to a tie with Washington and Washington State respectively for the northern division championship for the past two years, proved too experienced for the coming varsity. The game was played under the new football rules made by the rules committee at New York recently but the changes were not great enough to cause any great commotion in the stands crowded with fans. Difference in style of play was not noticeable to the average follower of the sport. The new rule protecting the backward pass was taken advantage of by the "old timers" who used several triple pass plays.

"Considering we had three of the best backfield men and a like number of good linemen missing from the 1927 lineup, we did fairly well," remarked Coach Schissler. "The coming varsity held the alumni on even terms until the fourth quarter when several substitutes were sent in. None of the men who played on the 1927 team were members of the first starting lineup last year."

"Looks as though the backfield will be considerably weaker than last year's. The line will be about on a par. Punting will be better but the place kicking of Schissler will be missed."

Here is the Oregon Aggie football schedule for this fall:
October 1—California Aggies at Corvallis.
October 8—Southern California at Los Angeles.
October 15—Pacific University at Corvallis.
October 22—Stanford at Portland.
October 29—Washington State at Corvallis.
November 12—Oregon at Eugene.
November 19—Idaho at Portland.
November 26—Carnegie Tech at Portland.

MAYANS WERE ASTRONOMERS SAYS SAVANT

By GEORGE W. HINMAN, JR.
(By Universal Service)

MEXICO CITY, March 18.—The ancient Mayans, who many centuries ago maintained in the so-called New World a civilization comparable to those of the Old, were expert astronomers, according to Dr. Sylvanus G. Morley, director of the Carnegie Institution's archaeological work in Mexico and Central America.

The amazing astronomical knowledge of the Mayan priests, Dr. Morley predicted upon returning for the resumption of work on the excavations in Yucatan, will be of paramount importance in connection with research work to be done during the next decade.

While uncovering the ancient Maya city of Copan in Honduras, Dr. Morley said, the excavators found two temples, apparently related but separated by more than four miles in an air line across a wide valley. Discovery of the significance of the locations was made in a strange way.

One day while trying to see one temple from another, the observers were prevented by fog, and a fire was built behind the Western temple to bring out the silhouette. One suggestion led to another, and finally it was discovered that on April 12 and August 30 of each year the sun, as seen from the Eastern temple, sets directly behind the Western.

This information was checked against other data, and it was found that these were the two most important dates in the Mayan agricultural year. On April 12, the priests directed the Mayans to burn their fields for planting, the beginning of the agricultural year. On August 30, the first crop having been harvested, the second was planted.

New Commission Will Hold Back Radio Licenses

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Permanent licenses to broadcasters will be withheld by the new radio commission until after a series of public hearings scheduled to get under way March 29, it was learned today.

At these hearings the commission hopes to get the views of broadcasters on various problems confronting the industry. Members felt it would be impracticable to issue permanent licenses before that time.

At the same time it was announced that all licenses held by radio operators, including some 20,000 amateurs, will be good for the term for which they were issued.

Thus operators will not have to apply for new permits until their present licenses expire. Steps to take drastic action to "jump" their wavelengths or pirate bands assigned to others, also are being taken by the commission.

Some members are said to feel that stations violating the wavelengths rule should lose their permits. This and other questions will be discussed at the hearings.

FANS AT EL CERRITO GET FAST ACTION

An abundance of hard hitting action kept fight fans on their toes most of the time at the El Cerrito Athletic club last night. Three knockouts featured the evening's entertainment which ran from the real thing to a comedy bout that was a wow.

Billy Liner, of Oakland, won a decision over Demetrio Tadeo of Oakland. Neither has boxed long, but their showing last night leads to the prediction that both will arrive.

Johnny Vierra of Oakland and Salvadore Ortega of Mexico City put on a "bull" fight that had the fans in convulsions.

Paul Barrieh of Sacramento won a K. O. over Neff McNell of San Francisco in the second round. Both proved to be green fighters and the sleep producer was a matter of luck.

Cliff Hottenger of El Cerrito put Jack Romero out for the count in the third round after a tough mix.

In the semi-windup, Johnny Woods of Oakland set the birdies to singing playful songs in the eardrums of Gen. Le Mont.

Weed in the second round of a scheduled four-round bout.

Gilbert Attell of San Francisco and Tim Vahey of San Francisco loitered through the ten rounds of the main event, and fought a draw.

The Best Investment Is In Fong Wan Herbs

4837 Shattuck Ave., Oakland, Cal. July 30, 1926.

Ten years ago I had malaria which left me with a twinging pain in my left kidney and running around my left side. Before I came to Oakland I had treated with numerous physicians in New York. As I got no relief whatever, I was advised to make a change of climate. I therefore came West, but here I suffered as badly as ever.

Finally a friend urged me to try the FONG WAN HERBS. One week of this treatment gave me wonderful, permanent relief. During the year that has elapsed since I have had absolutely no indications of my former complaints.

How wonderful it seems that the FONG WAN HERBS could thus help me after the doctors and hospitals had failed. I am a barber by trade. Had it not been for the FONG WAN HERB TREATMENTS how could I have earned a living while suffering with those terrible pains?

I am very thankful to the FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST for what he has done for me and am giving him this testimonial as a token of my gratitude.

"The Unforgivable Sin" Is Topic Of Dr. Bulgin Talk

Chips That Fall From Bulgin Axe

God pity the religious coward.

Christianity is not a philosophy. It is life.

A great many people are going to hell because they are butchering the Bible and making a curiosity shop out of it.

God will forgive the biggest debt as well as the smallest.

God has a sledge hammer heavy enough to break any heart.

You can't change sin with the imaginations of the mortal mind.

God is in nature, but a lot of people are driving themselves to hell by trying to find Him only there.

A splendid audience gathered last night at the Union Revival Services at the Big Tent, Seventh and Nevins to hear Dr. Bulgin speak on "The Unforgivable Sin," one of his most inspiring sermons.

"The unforgivable sin" is a condition that is dark and bitter, as sweet and darkness is light, John says, there is a sin that is unto death, and in Genesis will be found, 'My spirit shall not always strive with man.'

"God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, these three in one are striving for your salvation. No man will ever get to hell, who does not wade through the blood of Jesus.

"You can say good bye to the Holy Ghost and that you are not ready and love sin, but when you grieve the Holy Ghost you have grieved God's last agency to win you. You can tamper with an alarm clock and until it will not awaken you. You can also do that with your conscience.

"God is calling you tonight and it may be His last call to your soul. This may be your last revival, and when you drive away the Holy Spirit you drive away God's last call forever."

Tonight Dr. Bulgin will talk on "The Eighteenth Amendment." Many members of the W. C. T. U. will be present, as it is W. C. T. U. night.

Special plans to promote an active ticket campaign will be made during that week. Advance indications are that the students will boost the annual to the top.

J. E. Hill Is Brought Home From Hospital

Confined to a Berkeley hospital for several weeks suffering from severe internal injuries sustained in an automobile accident, J. E. Hill was adjudged well enough to be removed to his home at 3715 View avenue yesterday. A Wilson and Kratzer ambulance brought him to Richmond.

Others injured in the same accident are reported to be well on the road to recovery but are still in hospitals. Mrs. Dora Randall was internally injured and Frank Hofas suffered a fractured skull. Both are expected to be able to return to their homes in a short time.

Delightful Time Is Enjoyed In Judge Odell's Court

(Continued from Page 1) head on him at all should shoulder the risk of trying to break into San Quentin to save a minute from twenty-third to third street. It doesn't pay to speed in this town, lad. It is the judgment of the court that you pay a fine of $30.

PRIZES AWARDED
Metalf refuted with a short speech of appreciation. F. P. Nibley, 20, University of California student, was feted to a surprise present of a $30 fine for speeding 50 miles an hour, and surrendered his operator's license for 30 days without demerit. David F. Leary spoke a few short words of praise for the courtesy of Traffic Officer Lester Eaton who arrested him and paid $25.

CONSOLATION PRIZE
M. Odenkamp was awarded consolation prize of $15 for speeding 23 miles per hour on Macdonald avenue. He did not express regret that his machine was incapable of making more speed. The courtroom was charmingly decorated with a few choice curses and bitter laughs as the parties pants in the day's events filed out. A thoroughly good time was had by all.

Nine Burned To Death in Farmhouse

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Trapped in a blazing farmhouse at Tunnelton, Pa., a mother and father and their five children and another mother and one child were burned to death early Friday without a chance to escape. All of those burned to death were sleeping on the upper floor of the frame building. Harry Montgomery, whose wife and child perished, saved his life by jumping. The other victims were the family of Clarence Marsh, a wealthy farmer. This picture shows all that was left of the farmhouse.

SERIOUS CHARGES FLY IN FORD-SAPIRO LIBEL ACTION

By GENE FOWLER

(By Universal Service)
DETROIT, Mich., March 18.—Aaron Sapiro collected a million dollars in fees from organizations which he formed for exploiting American farmers, United States Senator James A. Reed of Missouri said he would show during Sapiro's libel suit against Henry Ford. This declaration, together with Sapiro's alleged dreams to dominate world agriculture, came at the close of the Senator's opening statement in federal court here.

Senator Reed also claimed in his windup that had Sapiro's visions been realized, the farmer organizer would have gleaned millions of dollars for himself.

Attorney Gallagher moved to exclude all witnesses except the person testifying. William J. Cameron, editor of the Dearborn Independent, was the first one called. It was 2:15 o'clock when he took the witness chair after a sharp wrangle between attorneys over Gallagher's exclusion motion. It was held that Fred L. Black, business manager of the Independent, could remain in court to help sort out and identify papers and records.

Cameron narrated his history as Detroit newspaper editorial writer and his connection with the Independent since December, 1919. Attorney Gallagher seemed to be trying desperately to get admissions from Cameron that he and Mr. Ford discussed policies concerning the Independent's attitude toward Jews and the so-called money ring. But Cameron, as the pugilistic critics say, was in a shell, whenever Gallagher appeared to be timing his legal punches correctly. Ford attorneys threw objections right and left. The metaphorical chin of the husky, bespectacled witness was safe and sound.

"With whom did you negotiate for employment on the Dearborn Independent?" Gallagher asked. Cameron replied coolly: "I never negotiated with any one."

Question—Well, whom did you talk to?
Answer—I never spoke to any one. I was spoken to by Mr. E. G. Pipp, editor of the Independent, a few weeks before I went there.

Question—Had you ever known Henry Ford before you went to the Independent?
Answer—No, I met him a month or two afterward.

Question—What was your position on the Independent?
Answer—Editorial writer.

Cameron said he had written many articles for the Independent. He added he had become editor some time after Mr. Pipp resigned, which was in September of the second year of publication. For a time, he continued, there had been no editor. During that period the staff issued the magazine without a formal executive. Policies were discussed by the entire staff at conferences. This led Attorney Gallagher and his opponents into heated objections and debates.

Question—Did you ever have conferences with Henry Ford?
Answer—Doubtless. He drops in quite frequently and chats about various things.

Question—Do you discuss circulation?
Answer—Very rarely. I, think, we don't take up matters of that sort much.

Question—Did you discuss love policies of the paper?
Answer—Only in a most general way.

Question—What do you mean by general way?
Answer—I can't recall at this moment any discussion in particular, but we have differed with Mr. Ford and have given our reasons.

Clifford D. Longley, general counsel for the Ford Motor company, sat hastily out of his chair, putting upward of 200 pounds on his feet. Senator Reed, who had been speaking for hours, raised his voice in remonstrance. Stewart Henley, also of Ford counsel, leaped up and shouted as to the immateriality of the question and answer.

Attorneys seemed to sprout with mushroom suddenness all over the green-carpeted floor of the federal courtroom. Attorney Gallagher then began to take Babe Ruth swings at the ball and when he missed when he attempted to get firm hold of the so-called Jewish issue in the case, they were impressive misses.

URGE FARMERS TO INCREASE THEIR ACREAGE

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Despite repeated warnings against over-production, farmers intend to increase their acreage for most of the principal crops this year, the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture estimated today.

A survey by the board indicated that corn acreage will be increased about 2 per cent, spring wheat acreage about 1.6 per cent, oats acreage about 3 per cent and white potato acreage about 14 per cent. The tobacco acreage will be about 3 per cent smaller than last year.

The board pointed out that the estimates do not foretell what the farmers will actually plant but what they intend to plant unless conditions change.

No estimate was made for cotton because Congress recently prohibited the forecasting of cotton acreage.

Downey—Sewer disposal plant to be erected here south of Dominguez Hill.

SEVEN HOMES IN WISCONSIN ARE OFFERED

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Seven more summer White Houses, all in the insurgent Republican state of Wisconsin, were offered to President and Mrs. Coolidge today.

Chief among them was the 10,000-acre estate of the late Victor Lawson, Chicago publisher, on Green Lake, near Fond Du Lac.

The tender was made by former Senator Lenroot and W. B. Heinemann, who came here as the special ambassador of Governor Fred R. Zimmerman.

They also proposed three estates on the Minocqua chain of lakes, one at Eagle River, Sturgeon bay and the G. E. Heinemann camp on Trout lake.

The President had earlier received an offer of the magnificent Fahney estate on Lake Winnebago.
